A SUBSIDIOUS BILL.

A Strong Lever Arranged to Push Through the Railroad Commissioner Measure.

Possible Effect in the Way of Pressure Up the State's Governor—the Opposition Views.

Chicago Railway Barometer Calls for Reports to Assemble in Jacksonville Monday.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 24.—[Special.] The opposition to the railroad commissioners bill, which caused the House yesterday by a vote of 78 yeas to 72 nays (all political votes), to refer the measure back to the committee from which it came, with instructions to report it back with certain amendments, is not at all disposed to give any quarter to the measure. Many have given more consideration since the discussion that fusion was the main element of the railroad representation in the House, and that the object in pushing the measure forward, regardless of the wishes of the people, was to put the Governor in a position where he would be compelled to veto the bill, the general cry afterward being and opportunity to accuse Governor Oglesby and his party associates of hostility to corporations and have them suffer. The bill was introduced and then duly reported back to the committee, with the amendments, by Judge Hall, a member of the committee, who is also a member of the Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners, and who, during the session, has been a strong supporter of the bill. The amendments are said to be satisfactory to the railroad companies, and to the Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners, and the bill, as it now stands, is considered a very strong measure in favor of the railroads. The Senate committee to which the bill was referred has not yet reported it back to the Senate, and it is not likely that it will be reported back before Monday or Tuesday next. The Senate committee is composed of Senators Hall, Cullom, Hamilton, Hunter, and Bradley. Senator Hall is the author of the bill, and Senator Hunter is a member of the Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners. Senator Cullom is a railroad attorney, and Senator Hamilton is a railroad man. Senator Bradley is the only member of the committee who is not in some way connected with railroads. Senator Hall is the only member of the committee who is in favor of the bill as it now stands, and Senator Bradley is the only member who is opposed to it. Senator Hunter is in favor of the bill with certain amendments, and Senators Cullom and Hamilton are in favor of the bill as it now stands. It is thought that Senator Hunter will not be able to get his amendments adopted, and that he will vote for the bill as it now stands. Senator Bradley will vote against it, and Senators Cullom and Hamilton will vote for it. The committee will probably report the bill back to the Senate on Monday or Tuesday next, and it will be placed on its passage on the following day. It is thought that the bill will pass the Senate by a vote of 26 to 24. The opposition to the bill is very bitter, and the opponents of the measure say that if it passes the Senate it will be because the Governor has brought all the pressure he can to bear upon the Senators who are opposed to it. They say that the Governor has been told that unless he signs the bill the Democratic party will be charged with the responsibility for the defeat of the measure in the Senate.

THE VOTE.

All the time the committee amendments were under consideration a generally earnest effort was in force looking to the amendment of the measure. But very few efforts succeeded, every Republican vote but one being cast in accordance with the views of the Chicago delegation, and the Democratic vote being divided, almost half of the party voting with the Republicans. The vote on the amendments was taken by yeas and nays, and was as follows:

THE VOTE BY PARTIES.

The vote by parties was as follows:

Republicans—Yeas, 1; nays, 72.

Democrats—Yeas, 171; nays, 0.

Greenbacker—Yeas, 0; nays, 1.

Total—Yeas, 172; nays, 72.

Mr. Speaker Hamlin voted with the Democrats, and Mr. Hatch, Democrat, voted with the Republicans.

Mr. Hatch explained his vote by saying that he was in favor of the bill as it now stands, but that he was opposed to the amendments, and that he would vote against them.

Mr. Hamlin explained his vote by saying that he was opposed to the bill as it now stands, but that he was in favor of the amendments, and that he would vote for them.

Mr. Hamlin's explanation was received with applause from the Democratic side of the House.

Mr. Hamlin's vote was the only one cast by a Democrat against the bill as it now stands, and Mr. Hatch's vote was the only one cast by a Democrat in favor of the bill as it now stands.

Mr. Hatch's explanation was received with applause from the Republican side of the House.

Mr. Hatch's vote was the only one cast by a Democrat against the amendments, and Mr. Hamlin's vote was the only one cast by a Democrat in favor of the amendments.

THE OPPONENTS.

A Chicago Railroad Company Counsel to Check Action.

It is the intimate knowledge that for that gift there is money, where legislative favors are to be procured, and there is little hope but the Democratic party will have to bear the brunt of the opposition to the bill. It appears to be the only object that appeals to the interests of the railroad companies, and

The "Kingdom-Surprise" Incident Assuming Proportions Most Alarming.

Its Greatest Menaces and Impossible an Apology from Egypt—England Votes Both.

A Brief that Peace and Boats Are in Longer—Boats Talk from the Arena.

London, April 24.—[To The Tribune.]—Under the heading "The Kingdom-Surprise" incident assuming proportions most alarming, the Standard this morning says:

"It is reported that Mr. Barrere, French Chargé d'Affaires in Paris, had been instructed to ask for an explanation in respect of certain statements which have appeared in the Egyptian official newspapers, and to make the declaration to the Egyptian Foreign Department that France intends to support the Sultan's sovereign rights. This request was confirmed a few days later by another note demanding, failing that, M. Barrere had informed the Egyptian Foreign Office, the withdrawal of the Commissioner in command of the French gendarmerie and police, which, with the Government of Egypt, will take steps for the protection of the Sultan's rights. Should the Egyptian Government refuse to withdraw the offensive statements, M. Barrere has instructed the French Consul-General to demand his passports and leave Egypt.

"It is understood that the Egyptian Government has declined to withdraw the statements complained of, and that the French Consul-General has left Cairo. The Egyptian Government has, however, expressed its willingness to submit the whole question to arbitration, and has appointed Mukhtar Pasha, the Ottoman Ambassador in Paris, to represent it in the matter. The Ottoman Government has also appointed a representative to act in the matter. The Egyptian Government has also appointed a representative to act in the matter. It is stated that Egypt now offers to compromise the dispute with France concerning the Isthmus and suppression of the Suez-Egyptian by making an apology and by admitting that the citizen claimed the rights of residents of the protectorate the action; however, to include "no objection to the access of the Suez-to Egyptian."

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION BILL.

There has been so much mystery about the bill which suddenly passed the House in the Illinois Legislature providing for a consolidation of railroad lines that considerable curiosity attaches to the matter and the effect of the measure. The bill provides that all railroad companies now existing or hereafter to be organized in this State may consolidate with other companies owning lines of railroad running from or through this State, or any part thereof, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the directors and approved by stockholders of the consolidation. The bill has had the entire support of the lobby, which was determining the southern connecting [illegible] while that it did but it was passed, and particular gains have been taken in response of information about it. There was no information from the brief discussion of the measure that there is any public benefit to be had by consenting to it. The measure have been in the habit of pushing all consolidating officers any regular authority of law, and it is accounted that more direct power [illegible] by public hearing is conceded to this bill.

There was one suggestion in the opposition to the bill which, it must be stated, should be a sufficient excuse for its rejection. It was urged that, under authority of its passage, the Illinois Central would consolidate with some one of its connecting lines outside the State, whereby the business of [illegible] would be thrown into the control of [illegible] and from which Illinois shippers would have no redress. The Illinois Central Consolidation from appointing a Consolidation or an Postmaster on the brief judge to any portion of that County which they would be found, and a suggestion which there was more." This is just what these bidders would do. They would select as Republicans, a tough [illegible] whenever there is a contest to appointing, electing, or other election based on Republican judge would vote to appointment to a Democratic board, whatever the sentiment in the place.

The only safe way to secure legislation to the interests party in the polls is to permit the members of that party to vote pledged to select a representative whose party loyalty and character are known to them. There should be no objection to this plan by any one, supposed to Republican, who is in favor of honest elections.

JUDGES AND DOCTORS DISAGREE.

The examination of Dr. Lee and business have been adversely discussed of late in the dispute of the doctors over him, Cook's case and the disagreement of the Supreme Judges at Washington in the Virginia land matter. The two occasions happen to be pre-eminently fit to illustrate the present status of law and medicine as such as "science."

Dr. Cook's case has been [illegible] and there is no doubt that the Senate would concur in such conclusion. Let the bill be examined by unbiased by from the County Boards the authority to appoint election officers and confer that power on the people of each voting precinct, after the manner prescribed by the Pennsylvania law—that is to say, in the cases of such precinct that each one electing judges, three to counties, and each citizen be invited to voting for the judges. This plan leaves to the stronger minority party in each precinct a representative of its own selection on the Election Board. The process is not complicated; it has been thoroughly tested in Pennsylvania, where it has been found practical and fair to both parties in its operation.

The second point concerning to the Public Board the selection of judges is the business of a partisan object to delegate such duty who claims to be members of the opposing party. Thus a Tax Sale Commissioner has no difficulty in finding a man nominally a Republican who can be trusted to work with the two Democrats on any fraud or unfair practice which may be described at the polls. In the contest of the Richmond Ward where the work fraud of last fall was committed one of the judges was appointed as a Republican, but he was a tapster man, and the most was might have been expected of the Cable bid had been a Democrat. It goes [illegible] that no more than two of the judges shall be taken from the same party; but what is to hinder the Tax Sale Commissioners from appointing a Democratic or an Unionist as the third judge in any precinct of Cook County where they would be found, and a suspicion where there was none? This is just what these bidders would do. They would select as Republicans, a tough [illegible] whenever there is a contest to appointing, electing, or other election based on Republican judge would vote to appointment to a Democratic board, whatever the sentiment in the place.

The only safe way to secure legislation to the interests party in the polls is to permit the members of that party to vote pledged to select a representative whose party loyalty and character are known to them. The two occasions happen to be pre-eminently fit to illustrate the present status of law and medicine as such as "science."

The complicated change in the County conditions in the question of an "issue" for to the people as it is of considerable moment to the [illegible] from [illegible] Bond, there is no hope for him, while others are quite positive he will succeed. One evidence it exhibits the danger to and uncertain, and another indicates the lawyer can short-circuit, and complain to deadly work disease may fail. Some Doctors and Chicago lawyers thoroughly to what is called the metaphysical school, and feel have been reading him. Count for two weeks past enough which would influence would they not [illegible] guaranteed, but which they are convinced have caused the most [illegible] to the [illegible] patient.

It cannot be much put to expected that the regular medical the court acquit, and the [illegible] physicians would be able to agree about the case. Those different shades of [illegible] present no such difficulty whatever that a court obviously to [illegible] the facts in order to [illegible] but the great trouble in the [illegible] doctors is that physicians of the most school record agree at least as to the nature of the disease. O. H. Ellis of Baltimore, Md., is at the Sherman.

J. Pierce Bradley of Boston, Mass., and Dr. R. D. Wagner of Syracuse, N. Y., are at the Palmer.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Hunter Jackson started for their summer residence yesterday morning, to be absent until May 1.

C. H. Dawson, Chugwin, Scotland; the Rev. C. D. Crosby, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Dr. H. W. Jones, Omaha, Neb., are at the Grand Pacific.

IN GENERAL.

A few additional cases quarantine need be made on South Chicago, but the sickness at Lemont and other points are well over.

Yesterday morning an unknown man, who rode under the influence of liquor, fell down the elevator shaft in Stanton & Hall's dry-goods establishment, Nos. 115 and 117 Wabash-av., and sustained serious injuries, from which he probably cannot recover.

The temperature yesterday, as observed by Sherman Hotel clerks, was as follows: Thermometer, 7 a. m., 42°; noon, 50°; 3 p. m., 57°; 6 p. m., 57°; 9 p. m., 51°; 12 m., 47°. Barometer, 7 a. m., 30.14; noon, 30.07; 3 p. m., 30.07; 6 p. m., 30.07; 9 p. m., 30.10.

Detective yesterday found two more Chicago men and about twenty in a dark street committing some petty outrage, but as a quiet crowd had gathered, consisting of policemen, reporters, and a number of citizens, they concluded to postpone the matter of arresting them until a more favorable opportunity.

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Byrnes says the specific instance which came to his notice recently in which a man was arrested for not putting stamps on cigar boxes was that of a dealer who had purchased a number of boxes without stamps, and was selling them to customers without them. The law requires a proper stamp upon all boxes.

Jack Redpath, alias Thomas Black, Scotch thief, is in the Harrison Street Police Station awaiting requisition papers from Governor Hamilton, of Indiana. He has been arrested on a charge of stealing a gold watch and chain from a man named Hall, who had been drinking with him in a saloon on Clark-st. Redpath is said to have been a member of the gang which robbed Mr. Hall of $1,000 in Indianapolis.

George O'Brien, found guilty by the Criminal Court last December of stealing the harness of Mary Crawford's stepfather, against whom Judge Gary subsequently granted him a new trial, was brought into the Criminal Court yesterday afternoon, and his counsel, Lambert Tree, asked that the indictment be quashed, on the ground that the grand jury which found the indictment was illegally constituted, in that it was composed of eighteen instead of twenty-three men, as provided by law. Judge Gary overruled the motion, and the trial was then proceeded with, the jury being completed at 4:30 p. m. The case will probably be concluded to-day.

AREND'S KUMYSS MILK CHAMPAGNE

(TRADE MARK.)

Should be the reliance of the physician in all those cases of debility in which prompt improvement of the general tone is imperative. Kumyss is the trusted and most easily digested food, and as such the best nourishment for a weak stomach; and at the same time, through the presence of fermentation which Kumyss develops, medicinal qualities are developed which are rarely met in so natural a fashion. In cases, therefore, of chronic cases of dyspepsia, Kumyss acts like a charm, promptly relieving all the distressing symptoms of such cases. When the stomach rejects all else, Kumyss is retained and assimilated, affording the patient nourishment, strength, and comfort, and, as a natural consequence, arrests disease and refreshing sleep follows. In gastric, intermittent, gastric, and typhoid fever, Kumyss is the best diet. It satisfies thirst and hunger and allays the fever. Kumyss has sometimes the advantage over drugs, in that a cure never is harsh. Unless an irritable stomach will respond to an assembly which an intelligent physician attempts in this line. Not only is nutriment assimilated, Kumyss is reported to. It should be the chief remedy for a weak stomach under all circumstances. The Evangelic Union worked with a few glasses of Kumyss a day will improve his digestion and all nerve forces. Ladies would do less nervousness, spare migraines, and healthier and long if they would add to their daily diet a few glasses of Kumyss.

Send for treatise on Kumyss. Beware of imitations.

Arend's Kumyss is not sold in large quantities but in consumers only.

"A Real, Genuine, Unexpurgated Book"

The Adventures of Tinias Terrystone.

A NOVEL. By Oliver N. Bonus, author of "Spotless Book," "My Mission," etc. One vol. 12mo, paper, 75 cents.

"A particularly good story; well conceived, well told, well written; . . . full of fresh and pleasant romance, in less and better and more adaptable metaphor reading."—Boston Herald.

"The whole present, in a course of amusing reading matter, is interesting, triumphant, and does it very pleasingly."—Boston Globe.

"I think that all the reader's attention as to this delightful and well-written romance."—Commercial Advertiser.

"Fresh, natural, and unaffected. The whole book gives one a pleasant sort of rest."—Boston Gazette.

"Interesting at least as one of the most diverting figures of recent fiction—[The Critic] is indeed a piece of masterly freshness, it would be difficult to find. There is the smell of new-mown hay about her, and the rich red evening sunset with which she regards her town and reads her vapid papers."—Liverpool Post.

Arnold's Life of Lincoln
PRICE $3.50.

It is pronounced by far within the only good Life of Abraham Lincoln yet published. It abounds every one by the simple, graphic, and truthful narration of the history of this great and honest life. It is a book for every man and boy in the West.

"Nevertheless the best and most complete life of Lincoln."—Cincinnati Gazette, London.

"The only life of Lincoln that the public should have to refer to."—New York Tribune.

"Reads like a romance."—Chicago Chronicle.

"By far the best biography of Lincoln."—American, New York.

"Will take its place as the standard history of that illustrious man."—Boston Journal, Boston.

"This life of Lincoln is the fullest, most reliable, and most authoritative work we have."—American Bookseller, New York.

"Establishing the greatest figure of our time in the true perspective."—Tribune, New York.

Such success as the work augurs is tremendous enthusiasm.

Mr. Archibald Rose Campbell's upcoming "Sermons for Boys," a semi-annual sermon a Second Consideration by W. Tuckey on Conversion and a clear but unexpected speed and best interested sketch by the Rev. Dudley A. Tyng—Mr. Rose Campbell's Sermons for Boys is every way equal to its predecessor, and will be welcomed by all who have read the first series. The sermons are all simple, pointed, and practical, and are full of illustrations and anecdotes which will interest boys. The book is in one large volume, between covers and paper in cloth. The first volume contained 26 pages; a second printed on good paper, contains many discourses of distinguished clergymen and others, with their autographs, and is well bound in cloth. (James R. Osgood & Co.)

Chicago packing-house chiefs have to pay cash for pigs to fill out the four days' supply of product from the week's receipts of the animals. The amount is always the greatest on Monday, consisting largely of pigs not fit for killing, but which must be taken, for the week includes Sunday, when no hogs are received. The cash is always ready, and pigs which the packers have had to buy for cash on Monday are always in demand on the following days.

It would not be good policy in view of the fact that the packers have the advantage in the matter of cash to discriminate against the pigs which they have had to buy for cash on Monday, for the week includes lots of these pigs, and often there are considerable numbers of them left over from the week. The number of week-end pigs is not large, but the packers have to take them, and they are always in demand on Monday. The number of pigs received on Monday is usually about twice as large as on any other day of the week, and the packers have to buy for cash about one-half of the total receipts.

Jack Wabash.

"I never don't believe anything has ever occurred here since Adam's sinning," the man remarked to a knot of idle worthies, giving the gaily-painted framework a hasty inspection with that disgusted look and another look to make the money's worth. Quite such an expression of indolent disdain.

A dissatisfied look over the front of the hall.

It was a goodly prospect that the upward and lateral line of concrete, brick, and ballast extending away to the left—the long, low house of cotton-gray standing between workers, transgressors provision of service and its, some more a shadowy group of arrivals and there a whole street town, and on the right hand the Gem-South—and Ascent.

There must have often figured a little in the background of cowboy-haired natives with a knowledge of hard-work in the hands, dust a dressy, sunburned person, with the same hopeful in spirit, sleep during the second occupation.
